ERIC PETERSEN PRESENTS...

THE TEN THINGS THAT KEEP HR MANAGERS UP AT NIGHT

This presentation reveals insights from experts interviewed at SHRM's Global Diversity Thought Leaders Summit and provides case studies of three organizations – Verizon, Pepsico, and SHRM – that exemplify best practices in the D&I field.

As Manager of Diversity and Inclusion Initiatives, Eric works directly with the Director of Diversity and Inclusion Initiatives to position SHRM as a leader in the diversity management and inclusion field. He acts as a thought leader, champion, and project lead in the design and implementation of innovative diversity strategies. Additionally, Eric will work with SHRM Staff to effectively respond to member inquiries regarding the SHRM Diversity Initiative; manage selected partnerships and alliances established by SHRM; and represent SHRM in interactions with external diversity-related organizations.

Eric Petersen

Eric has 10 years of experience in Diversity Climate & Culture Programming, Diversity Education, Learning Strategies, and Organization Development. He has worked extensively as a Diversity Educator and Practitioner. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Theatre Arts and a Master's Degree in Organization Development.

Eric comes to SHRM from a 15-year career at Booz Allen Hamilton, where he held such positions as Diversity Learning Manager, Diversity Climate & Culture Manager, and Training & Development Specialist.

HR Job Opportunities

Human Resources Manager

Our Mentor, OH technology service client has grown to the point where they need an HR Professional to develop the HR function. The main focus of this position will be recruiting for Sales and Technical (programmers) positions. Another focus will be developing/coordinating internal training regarding company services and products for the company's employees. Yet a 3rd focus will entail development of internal policy/procedure to include a Handbook, performance evaluations, new employee orientations, etc. This 13 year old company has a young and technical workforce who will benefit from a savvy, communicative, interactive, and "with it" HR professional. A four year degree in HR or a business related subject is preferred.

If interested please email pknox@ssandg.com with WORD.doc resume and salary history.

For more information on these and other HR Related positions please refer to the AASHRM website: www.akronshrm.org/jobs.html
